

Lonesome Fugitive "Iowa's Honkiest Honky Tonk Band" was formed in 1993 by Jerry and John Virden. The band has played almost continuously since it's start, playing 50-75 times per year. Lonesome fugitive started out playing top 40 country music and around 2005 changed to mostly traditional Honky Tonk style country music. The band has always had a pedal steel guitar and now has two pedal steel guitar players in the band and a fiddle for that genuine honky-tonk sound.

Current band members are Jerry Virden (rhythm guitar & lead vocals), Renee Virden (bass guitar & vocals), Bobby Jacks (pedal steel), Freddy Gomez (drums), Al Kabelá (pedal steel & vocals), Greg Valentine (fiddle & vocals).

Lonesome Fugitive will play Saturday night starting at 7pm.
