John A. Drake House (Pictured on the front cover)

John Adams Drake, descendent of Sir Francis Drake, born in 1802, founded the town of Drakeville in 1846. An "S" was later added to make it Drakesville.

John established a general store, milling business and packing plant. The packing plant was the forerunner of Armour & Co. Later he engaged in the banking business and opened the Drakesville Bank. He built the brick home where the late Basil and Betty Swaim's home now stands in Drakesville. John died at 78 years of age in 1880 in Centerville.

John's wife's maiden name was Harriet Jane O'Neal, born in North Carolina. They had two sons. John Hamilton Drake, born in Drakesville, was a banker in Albia. He was killed in the Civil War. Francis Marion Drake was a brigadier general in the Civil War. He was a lawyer and banker in Centerville. Drake University was named for him. In 1895, he was elected Governor of Iowa.

Midnight Blue Country Band

Performing Friday night here at the 2019 Drakesville Old Soldiers and Settlers Reunion is the Midnight Blue Country Band. Midnight Blue is a classic country band based out of Southern Iowa. Husband and wife duo Joe and Lori King from Drakesville bring countless hours of stage performance to the group. Joe is a multi-instrumentalist but plays lead guitar and sings lead vocals with the band. He began playing guitar at age 5 with a great deal of encouragement by his grandpa and parents. Joe and Lori also play in a bluegrass band and spend many weekends on the road with that group and performing in area clubs with Midnight Blue. Lori met Joe in 1993 and was introduced to the music industry by Joe. Lori had always loved to sing but was not skilled as a musician. In the last 20+ years Lori has learned to play bass as well as guitar. Lori plays guitar with the band and sings lead and harmony vocals.

Joining the band on bass is multi-instrumentalist Dan Clemmons from Sigourney. Dan cut his teeth playing mandolin, bass, and guitar on bluegrass music and joined the band in the fall of 2016. In addition to playing in the band Dan loves Volkswagens and Bootscootin' at area dance clubs!

Rounding out the band and keeping the beat on the drums for Midnight Blue is James Doud from Bloomfield. James grew up performing classic country with his dad and uncles in southern Iowa.

Be sure to check out Midnight Blue on the stage following the parade Friday night. You will hear a wide variety of music to keep you listening or on the dance floor!

The Harvest Band

The Harvest Band is not just another band. The band plays a mix of country, rock, oldies and originals. Because they play a wide variety of music including their own arrangements and keep current with the music they appeal to a broader audience and are sure to entertain.

Established in 1983... members include Tom Robinson—Leader, guitar, keyboards, vocals; Mark Bailey—Bass and vocals; Jim Robinson—Drums, percussion, vocals. All members are versatile and enjoy having a good time with the audience. The Harvest Band has played clubs and events in over 12 states and shared the stage with many Nationally known artists such as REO Speed wagon, Steppenwolf, Kenny Chestnut and many other touring groups. Three part harmony and years of live experience brings every song to the heart of the listener. Great music, coupled with great entertainment is what you can expect from this group!!

The Harvest Band will be performing on Saturday night during the Reunion.

The individual registering must register in person the day of the Reunion and must be present to accept the chair. The decision reached by the Committee as to the winner will be determined by the age of the Oldest Soldier attending the Reunion who is now a resident of Davis County and has been constantly for the most years.

The Oldest Settler chair will be presented to the one attending the Reunion who is now a resident of Davis County and has been constantly for the most years. The individual must also register in person and be present to accept the chair.

ARTICLE NINE

Anyone having the Shelter House as a food stand has exclusive rights to all food on the grounds with the exception of the Carnival and the Old Settlers Corporation.

ARTICLE TEN

Prizes donated by merchants for the drawings will be given to only immediate members residing in the same household. They must be present and come forward to claim their prize at that time. Anyone who is donating their time working for the Reunion Corporation that particular evening and leaving his or her name with the Membership Committee or a Reunion officer are exempt and will get their prize. This does not apply to the prizes given by the Reunion Corporation each evening. You do not have to present to win them.

There is to be only one name per ticket. One membership ticket equals one chance to win a prize.

THANKS

The Davis County Old Soldiers and Settlers Reunion Officers and Committee members would like to say a special THANK YOU to all who shoes your support through donations to our drawings each night of the 2018 Reunion.
